

Southwest Climate Adaptation Science Center

TRIBAL CLIMATE RESILIENCE LIAISON

Anissa McKenna (she/they)

MEET ANISSA

Anissa is a member of the Pascua Yaqui Tribe and is from Tucson, AZ. They have master's and bachelor's degrees in Environmental Science from the University of Arizona.

“ I'm glad to be working in a Tribally-focused role and can't wait to connect with you! ”

CONTACT ANISSA

 swcasc.arizona.edu

 aihec.org

 AMcKenna@aihec.org

 University of Arizona

➤ TRIBAL LIAISON SERVICES

Anissa assists Tribes, Tribal organizations, and Tribal colleges and universities (TCUs) located in the SW CASC region of AZ, CA, NV, and UT in addressing needs related to climate resilience and adaptation with resources available through the SW CASC. They also help to facilitate research and partnership building and help to plan and facilitate trainings, workshops, and forums.

➤ FAQs

Can Anissa help me find funding?

The SW CASC website houses Tribal Climate Adaptation Resources that include funding and grant information, which is updated on a regular basis. The SW CASC also periodically announces project solicitations specific to Tribal-focused research projects.

What other resources can Anissa connect me with?

Anissa can help facilitate connections to other partners, assist in organizing meetings and workshops, help with grant writing, and connect you to other regional Tribal Climate Resilience Liaisons.